

Giving Guide

At Eat Real, our mission is clear: we nourish the future of American children by putting real food on the table at school, at home, and in local and national policy.

Through generous support from people like you, Eat Real can work tirelessly to fulfill our vision—a future where every kid can look forward to a healthy, delicious future on a livable planet. Your involvement in Eat Real means more than just a financial donation; you are playing an active and vital role in making tomorrow healthier for all of us. Thank you.
